passed through Doornite The each occupied by 18 men wearing red-hordered black epaulets and carrying small arms.  On 4 September, 6 trucks with billeting equipment entered the the billeting area were redehordered block arould with artillery insignia. Troops practiced with 12 field guns of about 122 mm in the scutheastern section of the camp. Twenty-four 122-mm field howitzers were lined up on the gun parking lot.
Thirty other guns were parked under a wooden shed. About 100 trucks were lined up in the vicinity of the workshop On 4 September, from 30 to 40 trucks were parked near the filling station of the Altengrabow armunition depot. No training activity was noticed.
On 4 September, the small hutment 4 km south of Grossluebars quartered 60 to 80 soldiers who wore red-bordered black enaulets.  Officers also wore artillery insignia.
A telephone line extended from there toward Altengrabow and further to the asst.
